

Key Findings from the Report

Children make significant improvements while at The Mulberry Bush

Children make significant Academic progress

Children have significantly fewer incidents of aggression and anti-social behaviour

Children make significant progress in their emotional development

Findings reflect that children are increasingly able to self-regulate their behaviours and emotions