

Incorporating The Planned Environment Therapy (PET) Archive and National Child Care Library

Hello

Welcome to our August Newsletter - we hope it is helpful and interesting! - Please follow us on Facebook (MulberryBushThirdSpace) and instagram (Mulberrybush3) where there are lots of photographs and information about what we are up to.

Launch Day!

Our official launch day was on Tuesday 16th July and we had guests from far and wide. They ranged from our new neighbours to long standing supporters and users of the site. We planted a Mulberry bush tree and you can see the photos on our facebook page.

We would like to thank everyone who was able to make it to the day and share their stories and histories with us.

What have we been doing?

We have been busy preparing the site for use, specifically making sure that the buildings were fit for purpose and we have redecorated the main building. We now have a designated room for the National Childcare Library, called the Green Reading and Study room, it can also be hired out for small (2-3 people) meetings.

We have new staff members at MB3

Helen O'Niell is our new Administrator, she will be able to deal with your queries and help you decide on how you would like to use the spaces at MB3.

Nicky Hilton is our new full time archivist, she will be working over the next couple of years with Jen and Debs to bring the archive and the library up to scratch and accessible nationally.

Anthony Jansen - is our part time gardener who will be making sure the grounds look nice for all of our visitors.

What next for MB3?

We have a number of events, both internally and externally booked until the end of the year. We are starting to review the needs of the Archive and Library. We are concentrating on organising events to showcase the facilities at MB3 as well as networking with various organisations, charities, local businesses and academia. We will be working on providing information in differing formats, including podcasts and videos.

Our next newsletter will be out in December, as we come to the end of our year we will be putting on various events.
